Trip summary

Nepal has long been famed for its spectacular high mountain scenery but equally entrancing are the rolling Himalayan foothills and the open lowland Terai. These more accessible regions are where most of Nepal's historic towns and UNESCO World Heritage sites are to be found, set amongst the countryside where local people still go about traditional rural life.

On this trip you will be introduced to the architectural and artistic achievements of Newari craftsmen in the cities of the Kathmandu Valley, sample local cuisine, visit Pokhara with its stunning lakeside scenery, people watch in Newari Bandipur, one of the prettiest villages in Nepal, and search for wildlife on safari in the jungles of Chitwan. You will also take in far-reaching mountain views from the rim of the Kathmandu Valley and visit Lumbini, the birthplace of Buddha, UNESCO World Heritage listed, and one of the most important Buddhist sites in the world.

Your busy, but carefully paced tour begins in the ancient city of Bhaktapur where you will learn about the Newari people, the indigenous people of the Kathmandu Valley with their remarkable architectural achievements and long tradition of amazing woodcarving, stone sculpture and fine thankha painting. After exploring an array of fine palaces and temples, you will join a cookery class where local women in traditional wear will introduce you to some of Kathmandu's gastronomic delights.

Next you travel to the Annapurna region, exploring lakeside Pokhara with its lovely mountain scenery. After taking in some of the must-see sights you head up into the foothills. Here you visit the Gurung village of Chandrakot, witnessing the daily life of a traditional Nepalese village and learning how people from villages such as this travelled far and wide and became renowned as Gurkha soldiers.

Then it's on to Bandipur, one of the prettiest villages in Nepal and a veritable living museum of Newari architecture which offers an authentic taste of everyday life. Next comes the town of Gorkha which features a distinctive palace/fort located on the ridge top. Nepal was once made up of many small warring kingdoms. Back in the 18th century the army of King Prithvi Narayan Shah marched from Gorkha to conquer the peoples of the Kathmandu valley and beyond, unifying the kingdom to create the country we now know as Nepal.

Leaving this ridge-top eyrie you will drive south for a total contrast, with a visit to the jungles of Chitwan. Chitwan is home to a fantastic diversity of wildlife, including elephants, rhinos and even the fabled Royal Bengal Tiger. It is also a wonderful place for birdwatching. You will have two full days to relax here and explore, with activities included throughout your stay. From Chitwan you drive further south still towards the Indian border, to the town of Lumbini, famed as the birthplace of the Lord Buddha.

Returning to Kathmandu by air, you now stay above the capital city in nearby Nagarkot famous for its fine mountain views, and visit the city of Patan for an introduction to the magnificent craftsmanship of the town. You end your holiday with some sightseeing in Kathmandu city itself and a superb six-course farewell dinner in Dwarika's traditional Krishnarpan restaurant.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Depart London.

Depart London on your overnight flight to Kathmandu.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive Kathmandu. Group transfer to Bhaktapur, 1,329m/4,360ft.

On arrival in Kathmandu you will drive the short distance to the city of Bhaktapur to your first hotel. If there is time you might like to take stroll to explore some of the fascinating streets of the old city.

Bhaktapur is one of three major cities built in the Kathmandu valley by the old Malla kings who ruled the Kathmandu valley hundreds of years ago. These cities, Kathmandu, Patan and Bhaktapur are repositories of traditional Nepalese architecture and local Newari craftsmanship where you will find ancient Hindu temples, Buddhist stupas, crumbling shrines, picturesque Rana palaces and crowded bazaars. Many of the buildings in Bhaktapur have their origins in the 15th Century and the side streets, being mostly brick paved, still have a really medieval feel to them. There is still plenty of evidence of the damage caused by the devastating 2015 earthquake, but although restoration has been slow this hasn't spoiled the Bhaktapur's ancient charm. This is still very much a lived in city, and, with much of it closed to traffic, walking around is a pleasure and you will get a feeling for how things must have been in medieval times. Bhaktapur is quieter than Kathmandu city and still has quite a rural feel to it. The local people are predominantly farmers and the town is famous for its home-made yoghurt, as well as for its pottery made from the local red clay - you can see this production going on in the so-called 'pottery square' and other side streets.

Overnight: Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur (Meals: D)

Day 3: In Bhaktapur - sightseeing and Newari cookery class.

Today you will have a tour of Bhaktapur. This city, located just nine kilometres from Kathmandu, is a real cultural gem. Built in the 15th century by the Malla kings who reigned up until the 18th century Bhaktapur has many outstanding examples of the exceptional architecture and craftsmanship of the local Newari ethnic group. You will see fine palaces and temples with gilded roofs, open courtyards and elaborate windows carved in wood. The main focus for the town is the central Durbar Square where many of the finest buildings are found, including the famous Palace of 55 Windows which shows some of the best examples of elaborately carved windows and doors. Bhaktapur is a centre for craftsmanship and teaching, and later you will have a cookery class where women in traditional dress will demonstrate how to cook some local specialities including the preparation of homemade yoghurt.

Overnight: Heritage Hotel, Bhaktapur (Meals: BLD)

Day 4: Fly to Pokhara, 1,400m/4,593ft, and transfer to your hotel. Sightseeing in and around Pokhara.

After breakfast you will transfer to the airport for the short domestic flight to Pokhara, Nepal's second city. Pokhara has a wonderful location, being set on the banks of picturesque Phewa Tal (lake) and enjoying magnificent views of the Annapurna range of mountains.

On arrival in Pokhara you will be taken to your hotel before heading out to enjoy some sightseeing. First stop is the lakeside area where you will take a boat ride out across the lake. Soak up the wonderful views of the not-so-distant mountains and the terraced hillsides around the lake, and watch the daily life of local people along the shores of the lake; boats loaded with produce crossing from shore to shore, water buffalo wallowing up to their noses in the water and children splashing about in the shallows. You will also visit the two-storied pagoda style temple of Tal Barahi which is located on a small island in the lake. After this you head into the centre of town to see the Mountaineering Museum which has interesting displays on expeditions in the Annapurna Range and on the mountain peoples living in the region. You may then drive to Devis Falls Tibetan Centre to see some carpet weaving, visit the little school to meet the charming Tibetan children there and to see the Devis Falls with its weird rock formation, waterfall and precipitous gorge - there may not be any water flowing over the falls at all times of the year but this is always an interesting visit. Finally you will drive up to the top of a ridge to the Peace Pagoda to enjoy wonderful views over Phewa Tal Lake and the mountains. If you would like a bit of a leg stretch it is possible to walk back to the lakeside from here, descending for an hour or so through a forest of chestnut trees, otherwise you will drive back to relax at your hotel.

Overnight: Barahi Hotel or Similar, Pokhara (Meals: B)

Day 5: Visit Chandrakot village, 1,580 m/ 5,182 ft.

On a clear day, there are astounding views of the Annapurna range of mountains from your hotel, including famous Machhapuchhare, the 'Fishtail' Mountain. It is well worth while getting up early to see sunrise on the mountains, as the moment when the peaks first flush pink is truly stunning; you might ask the hotel reception to arrange an early morning call for you so that you do not miss it.

After breakfast you will drive for about an hour across the paddy fields of the valley of the Seti Khola River and then up zig zags to a ridge top to reach the little village of Lumle. From Lumle you will have a pleasant easy walk, taking about an hour, to reach Chandrakot, a village of the Gurung ethnic group, famous for their exploits as soldiers in the Gurkhas. Chandrakot is attractive village set in a stunning location on a ridge and enjoying fabulous all round views, looking down into the beautiful valley of the Modi Khola River and north towards the spectacular peaks of the Annapurna range of mountains. You will have time to enjoy the views and walk around the village to learn a little about village life and local farming methods, and perhaps meet locals who may have served in the Gurkhas. You will have lunch with a local family. Later you will walk back to your vehicle and drive back to your hotel in Pokhara.

Overnight: Barahi Hotel or Similar, Pokhara (Meals: B L)

Day 6: Drive to Bandipur, 1,030m/3,379ft, explore on foot.

Today you will leave Pokhara and drive eastwards to the village of Bandipur. Once a thriving Newari town on the trade route to India, Bandipur was left stranded when the main Pokhara to Kathmandu road was built far below in the valley. Nowadays Bandipur has found a new lease of life and is proud of its environmental credentials. The houses of the village have been carefully restored but at the same time a traditional lifestyle still continues. It's very pleasant to stroll around Bandipur as it is mainly pedestrianised and cafes, lodges and small hotels coexist with traditional temples and houses. The village commands panoramic views of the Himalaya and on a clear day, you can see the whole Annapurna range, as well as peaks in Langtang to the east and Dhaulagiri in the west. It is a real pleasure to just sit at a cafe and watch daily village life going on around you.

If you would like a leg stretch your guide will be happy to suggest a local walk. There are several pretty village walks starting from your hotel in Bandipur bazaar. You could visit Siddha Cave (30 minutes) or walk to Ramkot village (two hours), take a nature walk in the mixed Sal forest at Raniban east of the bazaar, or walk to Purano Kot, originally a fort, 20 minutes/500m west of the bazaar, where there is a small temple containing some old statues, and next to it a temple, where local people believe that praying to the god Mahadev during a drought will bring rain.

Overnight: Gaun Ghar Hotel, Bandipur (Meals: BLD)

Day 7: Drive to Gorkha, 1,000m/3,281ft - 53km, 1½ hours. Visit Gorkha Fort. Drive to Chitwan, 100m/330ft - 63km, 2½ hours.

After breakfast you will drive down from Bandipur to join the main Pokhara/Kathmandu road and then drive east, eventually taking a small road up to the town of Gorkha. Gorkha is famous as the birthplace of King Prithvi Narayan Shah, who unified the rival kingdoms of Nepal in 1769, founding the Shah dynasty that endured until the birth of the Republic of Nepal in 2008. Gorkha Durbar, the former palace of the Shahs, is perched on a high ridge top overlooking the town. It is a bit of a haul up steps to the palace but the views from there of the Annapurna range and over the valley of the Trisuli River are magnificent. Gorkha Durbar was built in the 16th century and is a fort, palace and temple all in one and it is regarded as a crowning achievement of Newari architecture. The annual festival of Dassain officially begins here with a procession to Kathmandu, and the town remains an important pilgrimage destination for Newar people. After your visit to the fort you will return to the main road and drive through Mugling, and head south alongside the river to reach the town of Narayanghat before continuing to your Chitwan lodge.

Overnight: Barahi Jungle Lodge, Chitwan (Meals: BLD)

Day 8: Activities in Chitwan National Park.

Chitwan is located in the lowlands Terai region of Nepal. The Chitwan National Park is home to a rich diversity of wildlife with elephant, rhinos, leopard, sambar, spotted deer, wild boar and Royal Bengal Tiger all being found in the park, along with sloth bear, gaur (wild cattle) and crocodiles. Chitwan is also a wonderful place for birdwatching especially in the spring when the park rings to the calls of several different kinds of cuckoo.

During your stay you will have the opportunity to go on nature walks to look for animals and birds, and will learn about the plants and trees of area. You may explore in open topped 4-wheel drive vehicles, take a canoe trip on the river, and although we no longer advocate riding elephants, it may be possible to spend some time with these wonderful creatures. The local indigenous group are the Tharu people and their villages are interesting to visit. In the middle of the day when most animals and birds will be sheltering from the heat, follow their example and relax in the shade with a book or cold drink. Your lodge may also organise entertainment in the evening such as a slide show or a talk on the wildlife of the park, or they may invite local Tharu villagers to come to dance for you.

Overnight: Barahi Jungle Lodge, Chitwan (Meals: BLD)

Day 9: In Chitwan.

You have a second full day to relax in Chitwan, and for further jungle related activities.

Overnight: Barahi Jungle Lodge, Chitwan (Meals: BLD)

Day 10: Drive to Lumbini, 150m/492ft - 130km, 3-4½ hours. Visit Buddha's birthplace.

Today you leave the jungle behind and drive further south to Lumbini, close to the Indian border. It is said that Siddhartha Gautama, the historical Buddha, was born here in 623 BC. Lumbini is now a major pilgrimage centre for Buddhists from all over the world - indeed by the time of the Indian Emperor Ashoka, an early convert to Buddhism, it was already a place of pilgrimage and his visit in 249 BC is commemorated by an inscribed pillar. The actual spot where Buddha was born in is marked by the Mayadevi Temple, named for his mother Queen Mahamayadevi. In addition to the many archaeological sites in Lumbini, Buddhists from all over the world have built temples and monuments here, and come to study and meditate.

Overnight: Buddha Maya Garden or Lumbini Hokke Hotel Or Similar, Lumbini (Meals: B)

Day 11: Drive to Bhairahawa - 22km. Fly to Kathmandu. Transfer to Nagarkot, 2,194m/7,200ft. Visit Changu Narayan. Afternoon at leisure.

After breakfast you will drive to Bhairahawa airport for the short 35 minute flight to Kathmandu. Here you will be met and driven out of the city to the small resort town of Nagarkot, built on the rim of the valley and famous for its fine mountain views. On the way you will visit the ancient temple of Changu Narayan located on a hilltop above the town of Bhaktapur. This temple is thought to be one of the oldest in Nepal and is built in traditional Nepali Hindu temple style and features many fine traditional sculptures and carvings. Although damaged in the 2015 earthquake the temple has been restored. The Changu Narayan Temple is one of seven structures cited by UNESCO as demonstrating the historic and artistic achievements that make the Kathmandu Valley a World Heritage Site.

Overnight: Hotel Country Villa, Nagarkot or Similar (Meals: BLD)

Day 12: Morning in Nargakot then visit Patan. Drive to Kathmandu city.

You will want to be up early this morning for the fabulous mountain views, including, if you are lucky, a distant view of Everest. You might also take an interesting early morning walk through the village of Telkot.

After breakfast you will drive to Patan, the third of the ancient Malla cities of the Kathmandu Valley. Patan, also called Lalitpur, "the city of fine arts", is another showpiece of Newari architecture with its own spectacular Durbar square, palaces and temples. It also has a good museum housed in an old Malla palace where there are excellent displays of the traditional crafts for which the craftsmen of Patan are famous, including cast bronzes and gilt copper repousse work. Before visiting the museum where you will see some traditional masterpieces of Newari craftsmanship showcased you will visit one or two workshops where you will see some modern day craftsmen working in wood carving, stone sculpture and the making of bronzes. You will then visit Durbar Square and will have lunch at the Patan museum.

Later you will drive into Kathmandu where you will stay at the lovely Dwarikas Hotel.

Overnight: Dwarika's Hotel, Kathmandu (Meals: B L)

Day 13: Morning at leisure. Afternoon sightseeing with visits to Kathmandu Durbar Square and Swayambhunath Temple. Farewell dinner at Dwarika's.

After a morning at leisure you will enjoy some sightseeing in Kathmandu City in the afternoon. Your tour will visit Kathmandu's historic Durbar Square with its many superb ancient temples and palaces where you will see Hanuman Dhoka (the old Royal Palace) and the palace of the Kumari, the so called 'Living Goddess', where you may catch sight of the goddess looking down at you from one of the carved windows of the palace. You will also see many other wonderful masterpieces of Newari architecture and wood carving. You then stroll through the ancient bazaar and the labyrinthine back streets of the old city and travel the short distance to Swayambhunath, the so called "Monkey Temple," an ancient shrine situated on top of a hill to the west of the city and commanding a superb view of the valley. The four sides of this ancient structure are painted with the eyes of Buddha with between the eyes a mystical third eye symbolizing true wisdom. The nose, appearing as an incomplete question mark, is the Nepalese number of one, a symbol of unity.

In the evening you will have a six-course farewell dinner in Dwarika's superb traditional Krishnarpan restaurant.

Overnight: Dwarika's Hotel, Kathmandu (Meals: B D)

Day 14: Sightseeing in Kathmandu - Pashupatinath and Boudhanath. Transfer to the airport for evening flight.

You will have some more sightseeing in Kathmandu today. Firstly you drive the short distance from your hotel to the important Hindu temple complex of Pashupatinath. Here there is a large temple to the god Shiva and nearby, on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River, are burning ghats where Hindus bring their dead to be cremated.

You will drive on to Boudhanath where you will visit its important and ancient Buddhist stupa. Pilgrims from all over the Indian subcontinent come to visit Boudhanath where they circle the stupa in a clockwise direction, turning prayer wheels as they pass, or visit one of the many Buddhist temples which have been built around the stupa. If you are in Boudhanath just before sunset a pleasant way to end the day, and your trip to Nepal, is watching the sun go down over the stupa from the rooftop terrace of a café, while sipping a cold beer.

In the late afternoon or early evening there will be a group transfer to the airport for your overnight flight to the UK.

Overnight: In flight (Meals: B)

Day 15: Arrive London.

What we say

This trip is perfect for the opportunity to see some of the sensational landscapes and cultural treasures of Nepal without the need for discomfort. Historic towns, picturesque villages, traditional rural life and exotic wildlife were just some of the attractions of this lovely trip and it was all enjoyed from the comfort of some wonderfully comfortable hotels. The warmth and friendliness of the local people was just the cherry on the cake. It was an inspiring journey at the same time as being a very relaxing experience.

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
