Your guide

This trek will be led by one of the following three sherpa leaders:

Dorje Sherpa has been leading treks for us for 25 years. He comes from Solukhumbu and has not only been head sherpa on treks in every corner of Nepal but has also trekked in many areas of Tibet and India. He has climbed many trekking peaks and has also climbed on Everest. One of our M.D's favourite Sherpas.

Khudam Bir Tamang has been employed as a sherpa guide for 10 years, and just like Dorje he has trekked and climbed on all the classic, and the off-the-beaten track routes in Nepal. He also ran the Everest marathon in 2013! He reached the south col of Everest in 2016.

Mindu Sherpa comes from Lukhla the famous mountain airstrip that you will fly into to start this trek. He is trained as a guide, and has qualifications in rock and ice climbing, and first aid. He has trekked all over Nepal, and made several trips to Tibet.

Trip summary

The Everest Base Camp trek is justifiably one of the world's classic treks as it offers spectacular scenery from start to finish as well as giving superlative, close-up views of the world's highest mountain. However, its very popularity does mean that the Everest Trail can get busy. We therefore wanted to create an itinerary that takes in all the must see views of the region but, by taking a circular route beyond the classic Everest Base Camp trail, you get a more rewarding, off-the-beaten-track experience. This trek offers the additional highlights of the beautiful Gokyo Lakes and the exciting and challenging Cho La Pass.

Our carefully considered route means that, by trekking to Everest Base Camp before crossing the Cho La, you will have the best possible acclimatisation and greatest chance of successfully completing the trek.

Starting in Lukla, your trek will take you up the valley of the Dudh Kosi and on up to Namche Bazaar. You will have time to acclimatise here before heading up to Thyangboche Monastery. From Thyangboche the trek ascends past towering peaks and stunning scenery to reach the area close to the foot of Everest. From Lobuche you follow in the footsteps of Everest summiteers to reach Everest Base Camp, where you will undoubtedly feel dwarfed and humbled as you stand at the foot of the highest mountain in the world. Returning to Gorak Shep you will climb to one of the high points of your trek with an ascent of Kala Pattar. From the summit of Kala Pattar you look across to the Western Cwm where Everest and other Himalayan giants provide one of the most spectacular views on the planet.

Then, just when you think things can't get any better, you cross the Cho La, an impressive high pass at 5,418m/17,777ft, and descend to the Gokyo Valley. Here three large lakes hang like a string of pearls in a high valley sanctuary, located one above the other. You will stay at the settlement of Gokyo set near the middle lake, Dudh Pokhari, at 4,750m/15,580ft. From here you can make the steep ascent of the easily climbable peak called Gokyo Ri from which an entire panorama of summits is visible towering above the great glaciers below - Cho Oyu, Gyachung Kang, Pumori, Everest, Nuptse, Makalu, Ama Dablam, Kang Taiga, Thamserku, Khumbila, Tawoche and Cholatse (Jobo Lhaptshan). From the summit of Gokyo Ri you will also have unrivalled views over the Gokyo Lakes and the Ngozumba Glacier tumbling down from Cho Oyu. Finally, you trek back to Lukla and enjoy a well-earned beer to celebrate your fantastic achievement.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Depart London.

---

Depart London on your overnight flight to Kathmandu.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive Kathmandu. Group transfer to Mulkot or Manthali - 3½-4 hours.

---

On arrival in Kathmandu you will be met at the airport and transferred to Mulkot. The drive takes around 4 hours (traffic dependant) and you will wind your way through Nepalese countryside before reaching your hotel either at Mulkot on the banks of the Sunkoshi river, or at Manthali close to Ramechap.

Overnight: Freedom Resort, Manthali or the Kwaliti Beach Resort, Mulkot

Day 3: Fly to Lukla. Trek to Monjo, 2,835m/9,301ft - 5-6 hours.

You will be transferred from your lodge to the airport in Ramechap for the flight to Lukla. This is one of the most spectacular flights in the world. As you fly east, the snow line of the Himalayan range to the north, will be on your left, with the rugged foothills of Nepal immediately below and stretching away to the south on your right. Lukla is situated high above the river on a shelf at 2,800m and arriving there is a unique experience because the runway is on a slope and there is a difference of almost 60 metres between its lower and upper ends which all makes for an interesting landing.

On arrival you can have a cup of tea while the trek staff collect your baggage. From the airstrip you will head north-west, through the village of Lukla and descend to the Dudh Khosi River at Phakding, 2,652m. The path leads upstream along the valley, through areas of conifer trees and several more small villages. Another 2-3 hours walking will bring you to Chumoa, 2,743m, a small and picturesque village of about 25 houses located below Thamserku Mountain, and close to the entrance to the Sagarmatha (Everest) National Park. Just after leaving Chumoa you cross the Monjo Khola and shortly arrive in the spread out village of Monjo for your overnight stop.

Overnight: Tea House (Meals: BLD)

Day 4: Trek to Namche, 3,445m/11,300ft - 6 hours.

---

A principal benefit of walking as far as Monjo on the first day is that you can walk up the steep hill to Namche when fit and fresh in the early morning.

You leave Monjo and continue to the park gates of the Sagarmatha National Park near Jorsale where you complete entry formalities. You then walk on alongside the river to arrive at the confluence of the Imja Drangka and the Nangpo Drangpo, which combine to form the Dudh Khosi. Crossing the river on a high bridge you start the steep climb to Namche. Near the halfway point up the hill, if the sky is clear, your first views of Everest and Lhotse come into sight.

You then continue the climb, less steeply now, to Namche - the largest and most prosperous village in the Khumbu. Thamserku, 21,713ft/6,618m, and Kwangde, 20,417ft/6,224m, loom to the east and west and the sacred mountain Khumbila, 18,729ft/5,707m, dominates the skyline to the north behind the village. The narrow streets at its centre are a mixture of traditional and modern, with Sherpa homes mingled with cafes, handicraft shops and shops selling or renting trekking and climbing equipment, grains and vegetables, tennis shoes and Tibetan boots. Don't be surprised if, after the exertion of the climb and the rise in elevation, you feel a little tired and head-achey. You will feel better after a cup of tea and a rest.

Day 5: Rest day - acclimatisation.

---

‘Climb high, sleep low’ is the mantra for good acclimatisation. To aid acclimatisation it is a good idea, at the very least, to walk up the hill to the Park Headquarters and visit the very interesting Sagarmatha National Park Museum. From here there are the first really good views of Everest and Ama Dablam - a wonderful panorama. If you are feeling energetic, you might also make the worthwhile excursion to the Everest View Hotel situated above the village of Khumjung. Although not entirely in keeping with its surroundings, there are very good views from its terrace and you can have a cup of tea or a glass of hot lemon there and take in the mountain views.

---

Day 6: Trek to Thyangboche, 3,873m/12,887ft - 5-6 hours.

---

Today, you firstly have a steep pull up out of Namche village, past the Park HQ and Museum, to reach a corner of the trail turning north. You then follow a wonderful high trail which winds round the hillside high above the river. From this airy trail you have fabulous views of the mountains across the valley, principally Thamserkhu and Kang Taiga. You pass through the small settlement of Trashinga before dropping down to the river which you cross on a suspension bridge. You climb for a few minutes to the small hamlet of Phunki Tenga, remarkable for its series of water driven prayer wheels. From here it is a further 2-3 hours to reach Thyangboche, climbing through beautiful forest to arrive at a large welcome gateway and a huge chorten, which you pass to arrive at the monastery. The setting of Thyangboche Monastery is magical, with the most amazing mountain views. It will probably be cloudy by the time you arrive in the early afternoon, but is normally clear first thing in the morning so it will be worthwhile getting up early for the sensational views of Everest and Ama Dablam.

There is a good visitors' centre at Thyangboche and you should also be able to visit inside the temple for the afternoon prayer ceremony. Visitors are welcome but you should sit quietly on the right hand side of the temple. A small donation is appreciated!

---

Day 7: Trek to Dingboche, 4,360m/14,268ft - 6 hours.

You will probably be woken in the early hours, while it is still dark, by the sound of horns and cymbals as the monks have their first prayers of the day. You will have time to visit the monastery in the morning if you did not go yesterday.

Your path descends through trees to Deboche where the small and atmospheric Nunnery is well worth a visit. You pass further houses and ‘mani’ walls as the path continues along the river valley amongst the trees. After crossing a bridge the path gradually climbs, with stunning views of Ama Dablam ahead. There are numerous fantastic photo opportunities in both directions and you pass frequent chortens and mani walls, as height is gained to reach the village of Pangboche. This is a very picturesque village with stone walled fields and there is a very interesting monastery set in trees at the top of the village. There used to be a yeti scalp and claw kept here but they were stolen some years ago. From Pangboche the path ascends up the valley, the sparse landscape now reflecting the gain in elevation. You pass some yak herders cottages and walled fields at Orsho before crossing a stream and making a final steep ascent to Dingboche. The village of Dingboche is set in a stunning position surrounded by high peaks. In summer months they grow barley here, possibly the highest altitude in the world at which this crop is grown.

---

Day 8: Rest and acclimatisation.

---

There are several opportunities for interesting acclimatisation walks in this area. It is possible to walk up the ridge behind the village to make an energetic ascent of Nagartsang Peak, a summit at 5,083 metres, from where there are stunning views of Makalu and Amphu Laptse. You can take in the small temple of Nagartsang Gumpa on the way down where there is a nice sheltered terrace from where you can enjoy the views. In the afternoon you might care to walk across to the village of Pheriche to visit the Himalayan Rescue Association clinic; in the afternoon one of the doctors there often gives a talk about high altitude acclimatisation.

If none of these options appeal it is possible to walk up the valley to the yak grazing pastures at Chukhung (a round trip of 4-5 hours).

---

Day 9: Trek to Lobuche, 4,931m/16,175ft - 6 hours.

---

You ascend the ridge behind Dingboche village and then it is an easy walk up a wide, grassy plateau. The peaks of Tawoche and Cholatse tower above and it is possible to see Pheriche in the valley below to your left. At the tiny hamlet of Duglha you reach a jumble of rocks which mark the base of the Khumbu glacier. You ascend this terminal moraine to reach the top where there are many memorial cairns to those who have died on Everest. The landscape is now wild and rocky and there is a real feeling of being high in the mountains. Following the often frozen stream at one side of the moraine you soon reach the cluster of houses at Lobuche. This rather bleak spot was once a yak grazing settlement and was then inhabited only during the summer months, but now it is open throughout the winter and is the jumping off point for Everest Base Camp and Kalar Pattar. Sunset over Nuptse is particularly spectacular from here. It is worth walking over to the moraine to view the moraine covered glacier behind it.

Day 10: Trek to Everest Base Camp - 5,300m/17,384ft, and return to Gorak Shep, 5,165m/16,941ft - 6-7 hours.

This is the big day for the trek to Base Camp. An early start is essential to get there before any cloud comes down and it will probably be very cold when you set off. Make sure to have something for breakfast even if you don't feel like it as you will need the energy. You are at high altitude, so take some snacks to keep you going along the way and be sure to have your water bottle filled when you set off. Leaving Lobuche you head north-east, along the side of the Khumbu Glacier through jumbled moraine and shattered rock. There is almost no vegetation here. Even so, small covovs of the delightful Tibetan Snow Cock can often be seen along the way or heard calling from the hillsides. You make several energetic ups and downs across the moraine and descend to Gorak Shep where it is worth having a reviving cup of tea and a snack.

From Gorak Shep it is still a long, fairly arduous trek to Base Camp, initially following the top of the moraine and then descending onto the boulder-strewn glacier. In the climbing season you may follow mountaineering groups or yaks carrying supplies, but at other times there are just a series of small cairns along the route. After a couple of hours you reach the base camp area from where, although you do not have views of the actual summit of Everest, there are sensational close-up views of the terrifying Khumbu ice-fall and a surrounding scenery of ice seracs and tumbled rocks. At this altitude the return to Gorak Shep will feel like quite a long way and will use up your remaining reserves of energy.

---

Day 11: Ascend Kala Pattar, 5,545m/18,188ft, and trek back to Lobuche.

---

At Gorak Shep you will be ideally placed for an ascent of Kala Pattar in the clear of the morning before cloud comes in to obscure the summit of Everest. Although not far, this is a tough ascent of approximately 2-3 hours until you finally reach the rocky summit of Kala Pattar at 5,545 m - quite literally the high-point of your trek!

From the summit of Kala Pattar there are great views of the summit of Everest as well as other Himalayan giants - Pumori, 7,145m, the Tibetan peak Changtse, 4,501m, Nuptse, Lhotse and countless other needles and snow fluted ridges. You can also look down on the Khumbu glacier where Base Camp is located.

You will then descend to Gorak Shep and take the trail back down to Lobuche.

---

Day 12: Trek to Dzong La, 4,843m/15,880ft - 3-4 hours.

---

From Lobuche you follow the path down as far as Dughla. You then take a small path that contours around a steep and fairly exposed hillside. Again there are fabulous views and once the corner is reached it is possible to see a beautiful turquoise glacial lake, Cholatse Tso, far below. You gradually ascend to the small hamlet of Dzong La. This will be quite a short, easy day after the exertions of the last few days.

Note: If, due to snow or bad weather, a crossing of the pass is not possible you can go round to Gokyo by a lower path. In this event you may discuss possible options with your guide.

---

Day 13: Cross the Cho La, 5,420m/17,777ft, trek to Dragnak, 4,700m/15,420ft - 5-6 hours.

To start the crossing of the pass you follow the wide valley, gradually climbing up towards the foot of the pass. Dependent on the time of year mixed snow and rock are encountered once the base of the pass is reached, and the ascent becomes much steeper on large blocks and boulders on a wide ramp that dissects the huge rock face of the pass. There are numerous small cairns to follow and the views when the snowfield is reached are amazing. The glacier gradually ascends through a stunning high valley until the high point of the pass is reached. The descent is initially steep and then flattens slightly on large boulders, which can be slippery. After climbing to cross a shallow grassy saddle you start the long descent to Dragnak.

---

Day 14: Trek to Gokyo, 4,750m/15,580ft - 3 hours.

---

Today is a shorter, easier day after the rigours of crossing the Cho La yesterday. Dragnak is situated on the edge of moraine of the Ngozumpa Glacier and this is crossed on a winding path. The terrain of the glacier is like a giant pile of rubble with heaps of sand glistening with snow and numerous small lakes and pools that change each year with the movement of the glacier. Once the far side is reached the path joins the main track up to Gokyo, and a beautiful small river is followed to reach the second lake. A short walk leads to the third lake, Dudh Pokhari and the small settlement of Gokyo, which seems like a metropolis after the isolation of the last few days. After lunch it is well worth walking up the valley towards Cho Oyu and the fourth and fifth lakes.

Day 15: Rest or climb Gokyo Ri, 5,483m/17,984ft, continue trek to Machermo, 4,410m/14,468ft- 8 hours.

---

The foot of Gokyo Ri lies just five minutes away across a stream that feeds the lake and a two to three-hour 'huff and puff' leads to the summit where the views justify all the effort involved. Everest, 29,028ft/8,850m, is showing more of its northern flank than from Kala Pattar, with Makalu, 27,798ft/8,475m, further to the east. To the north Cho Oyu, 26,741ft/8,153m, and all round snows, ice, glacial moraines and the giants of the world can be seen. After descending you trek down past the lakes to the snout of the Ngozumpa glacier to rejoin the Dudh Kosi valley. The trail clings to the west side of the steep sided valley and gradually the terrain becomes gentler as you descend through Pangka to Machermo.

---

Day 16: Trek down to Phortse Tenga, 3,675m/12,073ft, and then climb to Mong La - 5 hours.

The trail continues along the side of the valley with fantastic views of the small hamlets on the opposite side of the valley, and final views behind of Cho Oyu, which despite its distance still appears to dominate the valley. The high hamlets that you pass through used to be primarily summer herding villages, though now most also contain a few lodges. As you descend you have dramatic views of sacred Khumbila, 18,720ft/5,673m, Kang Taiga ('The Yak Saddle', 22,235ft/6,779m), and Thamserku, 21,674ft/6,608m. After Dole the path descends through forest, home to pheasant and deer. Spectacular ice waterfalls can often be seen in this shady spot. The river is reached at Phortse Tenga.

Then there is a bit of a sting in the tail to the day's walking and the next section will seem like surprisingly hard work. Leaving the river there is a steep one hour ascent to the Mong La, 13,035ft/3,973m, a small settlement marked by a chorten. It was the birth place of Lama Sagwa Dorje. There are superb views from here of the village of Phortse and Thyangboche Monastery across the valley, with a stunning backdrop of big mountains.

---

Day 17: Trek to Namche Bazaar, 3,445m/11,300ft, and descend to Monjo, 2,835m/9,301ft - 5-6 hours.

---

Leaving the pass at Mong La you descend to Tashinga and then take the beautiful undulating trail along the valley side with its wonderful views of Kang Taiga and Thamserkhu. Rounding a corner you see Namche below you and descend there for lunch.

From Namche, the steep descent back to reach the Dudh Kosi is a bit rough on the knees, but you will feel all that oxygen in the air and will also be able to shed a few layers of clothing. You will still have wonderful views and the chance to relax in slightly warmer valley surroundings.

---

Day 18: Return trek to Lukla - 5-6 hours.

---

Today is quite an easy day's walking with a slight sting in the tail with the last climb back up to Lukla. You continue down the valley of the Dudh Kosi as far as Choplung, then turn off above the village of Chaunrikharka towards Lukla. There are signs beyond the stream at Choplung pointing you in the right direction. The broad trail leading uphill to the left, climbs steadily past a few bhattis and the school, then through scrub forests above the school and houses of Chaunrikharka. After a steep final climb, the last one of the trek, there is a collection of houses and bhattis in Tamang Toke, a new settlement a short distance from the airport, and then as you approach the airstrip the houses and hotels begin to proliferate. Lukla will seem like a veritable metropolis. Now you can finally relax and enjoy a celebratory beer.

---

Day 19: Fly to Ramechhap. Drive to Kathmandu - 3½-4 hours.

---

You fly back to Ramechhap by scheduled flight. Sometimes these flights are delayed by bad weather; Nepalese pilots say they don't fly in cloud because their clouds have big rocks in them! In recent years though these delays are much less frequent than they used to be and people are not very often delayed. If you are delayed, we do ask that you are patient. Our local agents will be doing their best to get you a flight to Kathmandu.

On arrival at Ramechhap you will be met and transferred to your hotel in Kathmandu. Time to celebrate the successful completion of your trek, perhaps with an evening at the Rum Doodle Restaurant, a place frequented by trekkers and climbers alike, with pride of place given to a board with the signatures of many Everest summiteers - just the place to reflect on your achievements.

Overnight: Kathmandu Guest House or Similar, Kathmandu (Meals: B)

Day 20: Day at leisure in Kathmandu. Transfer to airport and depart Nepal.

---

You will have time at leisure in Kathmandu today when you may do some sightseeing or shopping or simply relax by the pool at your hotel.

Later in the afternoon there will be a group transfer to the airport for your overnight flight back to London.

Overnight: In flight (Meals: B)

Day 21: Arrive London

The Kathmandu Guest House is a 4* hotel situated right in the heart of Thamel - the tourist hub of the city. Known as Kathmandu's 'original hotel' it has been extensively renovated over recent years and has good quality rooms, a spa, gardens and a restaurant. The hotel also houses the excellent Museum of Nepali Art (MONA) which showcases traditional and contemporary works of art - admission is free for Mountain Kingdoms guests.

Freedom Resort, Manthali or the Kwaliti Beach Resort, Mulkot

Flights for Lukla now depart from the small airstrip at Ramechhap and we use two hotels in the area: the Freedom Resort in nearby Manthali and the Kwaliti Resort in Mulkot Bazaar which lies on the banks of the Sunkoshi River (about 45 minutes drive away from Ramechhap). Both offer simple yet comfortable rooms and also have a swimming pool, bar and in-house dining.

Tea Houses

Tea houses are a long established tradition in the trekking regions of Nepal, providing an important source of income for the local people. They vary in size and quality. Tea houses offer simple accommodation comprising twin bedded rooms and basic toilets - not usually en suite. Many tea houses also offer rudimentary hot showers for a small fee. Some tea houses have a limited supply of solar powered electricity but this is not always the case so have a head torch handy. Meals are taken in a communal dining area which is warmed by a wood or yak-dung burning stove. Most trekkers relax here for the evening.

For various reasons, it is not possible to guarantee single rooms in tea houses. If you are travelling without a companion and would like a single this may sometimes be possible upon payment of a small supplement on the spot (usually around $10). Alternatively, if the tea house has an odd number of guests on the night you may be lucky and find yourself in a room on your own. However it is more likely you will share with someone (of the same sex obviously). This would most likely be someone within your group but when the tea houses are busy, it could even be someone else. Be prepared for this! We do however offer the option of a single room in your hotel in Kathmandu for a supplement.

Flight arrangements

Flight inclusive from price

Our 'Flight inclusive from' price is based on the best fare available at the time of printing. As airfares change on a constant basis, this should be used only as a guide price. Rest assured that, at the time of booking, we will endeavour to get the best possible price for the flights you need. Remember, the earlier you book the greater your chances of securing the best fare.

Flight inclusive packages booked through Mountain Kingdoms are protected through our ATOL bonding scheme.

Flight upgrades and regional Airports

Please call us on +44 (0)1453 844400 for flight options from regional UK airports, Business Class upgrades, alternative airlines and stopovers. Please also check our website for the most up to date flight inclusive 'from' prices.

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

Why book this holiday with Mountain Kingdoms?

- This itinerary includes the beautiful Gokyo Lakes and an exciting crossing of the Cho La Pass. You will also visit some lesser-known villages and stunning viewpoints that many other trekkers won't see.
- Our route goes to Everest Base Camp first, before crossing the Cho La, thereby giving the best possible acclimatisation and an excellent success rate.
- We endeavour to use the best tea houses available at each overnight stop on our route. By staying in tea houses you will have close contact with the Nepalese people and are directly contributing to the local economy.
- In Kathmandu we use a 4* hotel with excellent facilities.
- Your trek will be led by an English-speaking Sherpa guide supported by an experienced trekking crew who will provide an excellent standard of service. Your gear will be portered for you so all you need to carry is a small daypack.
- We carry oxygen on this trip which our guide will administer in the rare event of someone suffering the severe effects of high altitude mountain sickness.
- Our maximum group size is 12 for this trip. This provides for a genuine small group travel experience and helps reduce the negative aspects often associated with larger trekking groups.
- We have a wealth of Himalayan experience in the company, most of our staff have visited Nepal and several staff members have trekked to Everest.
- We offer a flexible service and can extend your holiday with extra hotel nights, upgrades and exciting activities.
- As part of our commitment to 'Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency', we will be carbon-offsetting all international flights booked through us by donating funds to the Ecoan Tree Planting Project in Peru.
- If you wish to fly with a specific airline, from a regional UK airport or on alternative dates to the main group we would be happy to arrange this for you. Please contact our Flights team for flight options, quotes and further information.

If we've tempted you to take your next holiday with us, we advise you to check availability and you can do this via our website: www.mountainkingdoms.com or by calling the team on +44 (0)1453 844400. ## What our clients say

Such a well organised trip. Felt safe in the hands of the Mountain Kingdoms representatives in Nepal. They were helpful, friendly and well organised and kept our group well informed. It was a real pleasure having local sherpa guides on the trek - it felt very special to have access to knowledgeable guides who had a real connection to the local community and landscape. They did an excellent job, managing accommodation, food and, more importantly the daily trekking itinerary. Great trip.

- Marti, Derbyshire

The scenery is amazing, it has to be seen to be believed, the locals are fantastically warm and welcoming and the overall culture and experience is great. Lots of variety in the food and drink, the accommodation and toilets have significantly improved over the years though it's still quite an adjustment for those who are used to their home comforts. The EBC trail is now heavily used by trekkers, but the route to and from Gokyo is brilliant, much quieter. Overall, very well recommended.

-DT, Scotland

The itinerary is well thought out to ensure acclimatisation to altitude is likely to be successful whilst providing interesting walking on the acclimatisation days. The staff are always friendly and helpful to ensure the smooth running of the trip but clients need to be aware some days are long and hard although the views do provide a welcome respite.

- Mr P W, London

The Trek was an outstanding experience! It is something I will never forget. The views were outstanding and leave a lasting impression on your mind. There were a number of challenges which push you but the rewards were amazing. The route was excellent and the extra Trek to the lakes were the 'icing on the cake'. I would recommend this adventure to those who love natural scenery and outstanding beauty. Words don't really do justice to the adventure, you need to experience it.

- Alun, Merthyr Tydfil

A fantastic holiday. Service and organisation both before and during the trek were first class. Our Sherpas also spoke highly of your company and said that it was one of the few that actually looked after the needs of porters.

-Mr McG, Sunderland

The organisation of the trip from beginning to end was outstanding. From the moment we were met in Nepal we never had to lift our bags again and they miraculously appeared in our room every day. The trekking staff were excellent, very attentive and always ready to lend a reassuring helping hand on any tricky bits. The right pace was set by our excellent leader with lots of rest stops. As the oldest couple in our group we never felt under pressure.

-Mr & Mrs F, Hampshire

The trek was a real challenge for me, especially as I arrived in Nepal not feeling well. But the whole team - leader, guides, porters and the other participants - encouraged and supported me all the way. It was a truly amazing adventure. Thank you.

-Mr M, Hertfordshire

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
