Trip summary

You will journey north to south from Split to Dubrovnik as you explore Croatia's delightful Dalmatian coast on this relaxed one week island hopping holiday. Travelling on foot and by ferry you will stay in comfortable hotels as you explore one of the most beautiful and historic coastlines in Europe, where hundreds of sun-soaked islands rise out of crystal clear seas. The region is steeped in history yet Croatia has a cool, contemporary vibe with enchanting coastal towns now infused with bohemian bars, independent boutiques and a good dash of café culture.

Your adventure starts on the mainland in atmospheric Split, Croatia's second largest city, with its Roman ruins, café culture and spectacular mountain backdrop. Then it is on to glamorous, golden Hvar with its Gothic architecture, and marble streets that literally glow at sunset. Beyond the main town is an island of pine forests, olive groves, lavender fields and vineyards which you will explore on a lovely walk from the interior out along the glorious coastline, stopping to swim in the clear turquoise water. You will then have a full day to absorb the pleasures of Hvar with time for personal exploration or join a walk up to one of Hvar's two historic fortresses to look out over the island-studded coastline. From Hvar you travel by ferry to the sleepy island of Mljet. Over one third of this island has been designated as a national park and it has two beautiful salt water lakes, both wonderful for swimming. You will hike around the two lakes taking in several summits, with their far reaching views, as well as taking a boat out on the larger lake to visit a 12th century monastery on a tiny island.

You then travel on to Dubrovnik where you will have a walking tour of the old town while the next day you will take the ferry to the historic island of Lopud, now a quiet back water but once a strategically important port squabbled over by various powerful nations. You will have a final island walk before returning to Dubrovnik to celebrate the end of your Croatian sojourn.

The walking on this holiday varies but is mostly extremely gentle following a combination of footpaths, tracks and occasionally where they cannot be avoided, rural roads. There are plenty of opportunities to swim when the water is warm.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Fly London to Split.

On arrival at Split airport there will be a single group transfer to your hotel. This is timed to fit the Mountain Kingdoms group flight, please check with us for further information.

Your guide will meet you late afternoon for a brief orientation meeting followed by a welcome dinner together.

Split is Croatia's second largest city; here contemporary architecture sits alongside UNESCO palaces, old city walls and a beautiful palm-lined waterside promenade (the Riva), all set beneath a spectacular mountain backdrop. At the UNESCO protected heart of Split is Diocletian's Palace. This living museum, built for the Emperor Diocletian, is undoubtedly the grandest Roman ruin in Europe and a wonderful place to wander and explore.

After regrouping in the evening you'll head out to one of the many fantastic restaurants that are to be found in this town.

Overnight: Art Hotel Annex or Similar, Split (Meals: D)

Day 2: Ferry to Hvar - 30 minutes. Walk from Veliko Grabje to Hvar - 3-4 hours.

Today you travel to your first Croatian island... and what an island! You take the ferry to glamorous Hvar with its beautifully restored historic buildings, chic shops and excellent restaurants. Beyond the town there are secluded emerald coves, white pebble beaches and groves of wild lavender, rosemary and olive trees to explore.

After a quick stop to buy your picnic lunch, probably from one of the excellent bakeries, you head up the stone steps through the old town to Fortica Španjola, the 16th century hilltop fortress which dominates the bay. After exploring the fort, you have a short road transfer into the interior of the island to the small village of Veliko Grabje where you start today's walk. You descend toward Malo Grablje, an abandoned stone village which dates back to the 9th century, and is built in traditional Croatian style. There is a short unavoidable section on a rarely used tarmac road before you continue on small footpaths following the dazzling coastline back round towards Hvar. You'll stop for your picnic lunch in one of the many beautiful bays en route and there will be a chance to take a swim from the beach at either Mekicevica or Pokonji Dol. Finally the walk concludes under the fragrant shade of dwarf Aleppo pines and past desirable seafront properties back into the delights of Hvar harbour.

Total walking distance approximately 12km with negligible ascent and 360m/1,181ft descent.

If you prefer to spend more time to relax on the beach at Mekicevica or Pokonji Dol, the walk back round the headland and into Hvar is easy and simple to find.

Hvar's strategic location in the Adriatic has made the island an important trade base over the centuries. The Venetians in particular played a crucial part in the development of the town from the 1400s, building churches, monasteries and palaces whilst the Venetian fleet overwintered in Hvar's sheltered harbour. Their influence can still be seen everywhere.

The remainder of the day is at leisure for you to explore the town, maybe visit the small museum and stroll the harbour promenade lined with the elegant yachts of the rich and famous. Alternatively you may like to take a taxi-boat across to one of the tiny islets opposite the harbour.

Overnight: Villa Nora Hotel, Hvar (Meals: B)

Day 3: In Hvar - at leisure or optional walk through old town to Fortica and Napoleon Fortress.

You have a day in Hvar town when you may either relax, do your own exploration, or join a walk up to one or both of Hvar's two historic forts. One was built by the Venetians in the 16th century and the other by the French in 1812, and both offer a pleasant walk up out of Hvar town and good views.

The fort closest to town is the Fortica or Spagnola Fort. Although this fort was originally built by the Venetians in the 16th century, Spanish engineers were later employed to work on the fortifications which is how the fort is said to have acquired its nickname, Spanjola. The fort enjoys a striking position set high above the town. Higher still is the Napoleon Fort, approximately a 45 minute walk up through pine forest. From here you can enjoy extensive views of Hvar town and numerous nearby islands such as the Pakleni islands, Vis, Brac, and Šolta. (Entry fees to the forts are not included in the tour price).

Overnight: Villa Nora Hotel, Hvar (Meals: B)

Day 4: Ferry to Mljet - 30 minutes. Explore island on foot and by boat. 5-6 hours walking.

Today you move on to another island - lush Mljet, which is sparsely populated and completely different in character to your last island. Over one-third of Mljet is protected as national park, and the landscape here is heavily forested with Holm oak, tall stands of Aleppo pine and dense evergreen maquis. Legend has it that Odysseus chose secluded Mljet to hide away for seven years with the nymph Calypso, and it is easy to understand why.

Mljet receives relatively few visitors, and most don't venture far beyond the shoreline of the two salt water lakes. You arrive into sleepy Pomena and after entering the national park your walk starts on the smaller of the two lakes, following a small footpath alongside the cool turquoise water. The path is lined with flowers and this is a favourite spot for some of the many butterfly species found in the park.

Reaching the second and larger of the two saltwater lakes, Veliko Jezero, you hop aboard a small boat to the visit the 12th Century monastery on the islet of Sv Marija. This is a pleasant spot for your picnic lunch. The boat takes you back across the lake to Pristaniste where you continue your walk up away from the main trail to the small peaks of Veliki Sladin and Montokuc for far-reaching views over the lakes and beyond. You complete the circuit of Veliko Jezero, returning to Malo Jezero along the lakeside for a swim in the brilliant blue water before checking into your hotel in Pomena.

Total walking approximately 15km, with around 280m/900ft of ascent and descent.

Overnight: Hotel Odisej, Mljet (Meals: B D)

Day 5: Ferry to Dubrovnik - 80 minutes. Transfer to hotel. Walking tour of Dubrovnik Old Town - 2 hours. Rest of day at leisure.

There is a final ferry south this morning, this time back to the mainland. On arrival you transfer to your hotel and orientate yourself before your guide escorts you to the Old Town. Your guide will also show you how to get back to the hotel so that you have the flexibility to return at any time.

You arrive outside the city walls at the impressive Pile City Gate, and as you pass through the daunting 6m thick ramparts it feels like stepping into another world. Dubrovnik's spectacular limestone thoroughfare, the Stradun, stretches out in front of you beyond the Onofrio's Fountain, the gleaming street lined with baroque stone buildings on either side.

After lunch you will join an official walking tour around the streets of Dubrovnik old town.

The Old Town of Dubrovnik (UNESCO), surrounded by ramparts and fortresses, is a treasure of architectural and cultural masterpieces, almost all well preserved over the centuries. Your walking tour will be led by a city guide who will introduce you to some of the Old Town highlights; the Franciscan Church and Monastery, the cathedral with its treasury housing the relics of St. Blaise, St. Blaise's Church, and of course the City Walls.

The remainder of the day is free for you to explore further and are free to wander at leisure - you may like to walk the city walls, visit the Rector's Palace, take the cable car above the city to the Napoleonic fortress on Mt Srd, or make the steep climb up to the Lovrijenac Fortress.

Your guide will arrange a time late afternoon to meet for the return journey to your hotel or you may prefer to linger in the Old Town into the evening. Sunset over the red roofs of the city is unforgettable.

Overnight: Hotel Lapad or Similar, Dubrovnik (Meals: B)

Day 6: Transfer to Gruz port and boat ride to Lopud Island (55 minutes). Island walk. Return to Dubrovnik by boat and farewell dinner.

After breakfast you will make the short transfer to Gruz port to catch a boat across to Lopud Island, a crossing of just under an hour. Nowadays Lopud is a charming and relatively quiet place with good beaches and without cars or traffic, home to a permanent population of under 300 people. In the past however, Lopud was a very important port, with great strategic importance - in the 17th century it is said to have had a population of 14,000 people, mostly involved in seafaring. Formally part of the Republic of Dubrovnik, from the 18th to the early 20th centuries, the French, English and Austrians took turns controlling this strategically located little island. Nowadays there are reminders of the island's more momentous maritime past with the atmospheric ruins of a fortress and palace, churches dating back to the 15th and 16th centuries and a restored Franciscan monastery.

You will have the day to walk around the island and enjoy its beaches before returning to Dubrovnik in the afternoon and enjoying a farewell dinner in the evening.

Overnight: Hotel Lapad or Similar, Dubrovnik (Meals: B D)

Day 7: Group transfer to Dubrovnik Airport. Fly to London.

After breakfast there will be a group transfer to the airport.

We can organise separate transfers to fit other flight departure times or alternate airports, and are also happy quote for extra nights in Dubrovnik if you are looking to extend your time in Croatia. Please contact the office for further information and hotel/transfer prices.

(Meals: B)

Holidays within this grade generally use hotels and comfortable lodges although a few do have some nights camping.

These holidays are suitable for people who enjoy easy-paced walks in the British countryside or exploring on foot rather than in a vehicle.

This makes water from virtually any source safe to drink and significantly reduces the need for travellers to buy bottles of water wherever they are in the world.

Our clients who are not given a free Mountain Kingdoms kit bag for their holiday (these are required for certain treks), will instead receive a free Mountain Kingdoms Water-to-Go bottle. These unique Water-to-Go bottles can also be purchased from us at a discounted rate.

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

What our clients say

A wonderful introduction to the islands of Croatia bookended with guided walks around the cities of Split and Dubrovnik. Marko was a brilliant guide.

-JHM, Herts

Easy walking, good food and wine, beautiful beaches and historic cities - these are a few of my favourite things, and this holiday delivered them in spades! Croatia surpassed my expectations on every level, with Dubrovnik the icing on the cake - one of those rare destinations which fully justify the hype.

- Jude Limburn Turner, Mountain Kingdoms

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
