Trip summary

The Great Silk Road, and the ancient cities that have grown prosperous along its length, are some of the most amazing places of the ancient world. This Central Asian region is an area of opposites: old and new, lost and rediscovered. Uzbekistan lies along the Silk Route, and has four of the greatest and most powerful cities of the area within its borders. Samarkand, Khiva, Bukhara and Tashkent have been influenced by Genghis Khan, his descendants and all the conquerors that followed.

Our cultural tour will show you a country, barely twenty years old, newly freed from the Soviet Empire, a people still proud of their new country and of their ancient history. The empires of the Mongols, Alexander the Great and the Persians have all made their mark, as well as the more recent empires of the Ottomans and Russians.

Your tour starts in Tashkent, the modern-day capital of Uzbekistan. You will see architectural achievements of the Russians and Uzbeks, as well as ancient mosques of the old city. You visit Khast Imom and Chorsu Bazaar, where you will have the opportunity to see local life in action.

Next you travel to Khiva, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Stepping out of your hotel and through one of four enormous gates, you enter Ichan Kala, the inner fortress of Khiva. Within its walls, Khiva houses over 180 historical monuments, mausoleums, mosques, madrassas, a castle and a palace.

Bukhara is the next stop, a unique 'open air' museum. The historic centre of Bukhara boasts countless blue-domed mosques and madrasahs, embroidery workshops, craft workshops and bazaars.

Onwards to Samarkand, jewel of Uzbekistan and the most famous of the Silk Road cities. Marco Polo rightly declared it "a very large and splendid city". Samarkand is home to Tamerlane's mausoleum and famous Registan Square. This central square is one of the most visually stunning examples of Islamic architecture to be found anywhere. Also in Samarkand is the Observatory of Ulugh Beg, Emperor of the Mongol Empire, grandson of Tamerlane, and respected Astronomer.

In just two weeks, we will introduce you to this spectacular land and let you experience a sense of being in a different age and a different world. This in-depth cultural tour offers you a carefully chosen mix of guided tours, free time for exploration and fascinating travel through varied landscapes. Journeys are made by road, air and an exciting central Asian rail journey. Accommodation has been carefully selected throughout with hotels hand-picked for comfort and character.

If you would like to see more of this fascinating part of the world, we offer an extension to the Fergana Valley, east of Tashkent. The Fergana Valley is the most fertile area in Uzbekistan and is the agricultural heartland of the region. It was an important stopping point on the Silk Road between Kashgar and Samarkand and is famous for its fine craftsmen, particularly in silk, ceramics and carpets. For further information, please see the extension details on the holiday page of our website or request a Fergana Valley extension leaflet from the Mountain Kingdoms office.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Fly London to Tashkent

---

Depart London on an overnight flight to Tashkent.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive in Tashkent. Group transfer to hotel for breakfast. Time at leisure. Walking tour of Old Tashkent.

---

On arrival in Tashkent you will be transferred to your hotel for breakfast. Tashkent is the capital of Uzbekistan and rightfully claims to be the biggest and most cosmopolitan city of Central Asia. Although it has been continuously inhabited for over 2,000 years, a massive earthquake in the 1960s levelled the entire city and a modern city was born. The city is noted for its tree lined streets, numerous fountains and pleasant parks.

The rest of the morning will be at leisure after your long-haul flight.

After lunch you will be taken on a sightseeing tour which will include visits to Chorsu Bazaar in the old part of Tashkent, Kukuldash Mosque and Khast Imom. Khast Imom is the official religious centre for Muslims in Central Asia and consists of Barak Khan Madrassa (16th century), Tilla Shaykh Mosque (the Osman Koran, believed to be world's oldest Koran, is kept in the library of this Mosque) and the mausoleum of Abu Bakr Kaffal Shoshi (a 13-14th century Islamic scholar).

If you are travelling on the Fergana extension you will join the group for sightseeing on this day.

Overnight: Al Anvar Hotel or Similar, Tashkent (Meals: BLD)

Day 3: Fly to Urgench - 1½ - 2 hours. Drive to Khiva - 40 km. Sightseeing of the Ichan Kala architectural complex.

---

You will be transferred to the airport to catch the early morning flight to Urgench. On arrival in Urgench you will be driven to Khiva. The short drive to Khiva is in itself an interesting insight into the culture, peoples and modes of transport in Uzbekistan. Expect to see anything and everything, from modern cars and motorbikes to beaten up Soviet style cars and trucks, and carts pulled by donkeys.

In the afternoon you will have a tour of the Ichan-Kala architectural complex (12-19th century). This is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and was the residence of the last Khan. The complex includes the Ismail Khodja mausoleum, Mohammed Amin Khan Madrassa, Kunya-Ark Castle (16-17th century), Kalta Minor tower, Tash-Hovli Palace (19th century), Pahlavan Mahmud Mausoleum (14-18th century), and the Juma Mosque (10th century).

Overnight: Hotel in Khiva (Meals: BLD)

Day 4: Day at leisure in Khiva.

---

You will have a day at leisure in Khiva for exploring and sightseeing on your own. Your hotel is well placed for within the old city.

Overnight: Hotel in Khiva (Meals: B)

Day 5: Day trip to the Kyzylkum Desert.

---

Today you will spend the day in the Kyzylkum Desert, a sand desert that is one of the largest in Asia. The name means 'red sand' in Turkic languages and much of the area is covered in sand dunes called barchans. This area is famous for its Bactrian camels, the so called 'ships of the desert' and the caravan routes of the Silk Road once crossed this region from oasis to oasis and from caravansarai to caravanaerai.

You will visit Ayaz Kala, a 4th century fortress set on the banks of the Amu Darya River, and later you will visit the ruins of the ancient city of Tuprak Kala.

This city was the capital of the Khorezm culture which flourished in this region in the in the 1st-6th centuries AD. The fortress of Tuprak Kala was the palace of the Khorezm Khan, who ruled the area. Lunch today will be taken in a local restaurant. This may be picnic style at the restaurant's yurts.

Overnight: Hotel in Khiva (Meals: BLD)

Day 6: Drive to Bukhara, 450 km - 7-8 hours.

---

Today you will be driven to Bukhara, which is regarded by many to be one of the most cultural and evocative cities in the world. Again the drive is in itself an exciting and interesting part of your adventure tour. The journey will take around 8 hours to complete.

Firstly, you drive over a wide river (in ancient times called by its Latin name, Oxus), now called the Amu Darya. The bridge is a series of flat topped metal barges, welded together. This then brings you to the main road leading to Bukhara. The country is surprisingly green and cultivated, though you will also see remnants of decaying Soviet industry too. You may see camels, roadside water melon sellers and more donkeys and carts. The road itself is of a reasonably high standard - although it is a bit bumpy on the first part from Khiva until you meet the highway.

Overnight: Hotel in Bukhara (Meals: BLD)

Day 7: Full day sightseeing in Bukhara.

---

Today you will tour some of the wonderful monuments of Bukhara. In the morning you will visit the Samanid Mausoleum, burial place of Ismail Samani and other members of the Samanid dynasty, who ruled in Central Asia in the 9th and 10th centuries. You will continue to the nearby Chashma-Ayub Mausoleum, said to be the site of Job's (Ayub's) well, a holy spring connected in legend to the Prophet Job and known for its pure water and healing properties. You will also visit Bukhara's famous bazaar, said to be one of the oldest and largest in the world and an important stop on the Silk Road. Nowadays the bazaar is famed for its handmade carpets and colourful hand-embroidered fabrics and it's also a great place for buying dried fruits, nuts, spices, rice and bread.

Then it's on to Bolo Haouz Mosque, also known as the Forty Pillar Mosque. This mosque dates back to the early 18th century and its slender, elegantly carved wooden pillars hold up a beautifully restored painted coffered ceiling. You will end the morning at the massive Ark Fortress, formerly the residence of the khans of Bukhara and a symbol of their great power.

After lunch in a local restaurant you will have more sightseeing, taking in the Poi Kalyan Ensemble which includes four monuments - the Kalyan Mosque, the Miri-Arab Madrassa, the Kalyan Minaret and the smaller Amir-Allimkhan Madrassa. Bukhara is also famous for its very fine embroidery, using gold and silver thread, and you will have time to visit an embroidery workshop before going on to Magok-i-Attari mosque, part of the Lyab-I Hauz religious complex, one of Bukhara's oldest mosques and nowadays housing a museum of carpets.

Day 8: Time at leisure in Bukhara.

---

Today is free to do your own sightseeing or further exploration of Bukhara. Your hotel is centrally located for your sightseeing.

Overnight: Hotel in Bukhara (Meals: B)

Day 9: Sightseeing around Bukhara.

---

Today you will venture further afield from Bukhara. Firstly to visit the Bahauddin Naqshbandi memorial complex to see the tomb of Bahauddin Naqshbandi, one of the most renowned Sufi philosophers of Central Asia who is considered the patron of all craftsmen. Also in the outskirts of Bukhara is the Sitara-i Mokhi Khosa, the summer palace of the last emirs of Bukhara, built outside the city so the ruler could escape the summer heat the building fuses European and oriental features. It's a fascinating place to explore and you can also enjoy a nice cup of coffee in the cafe.

The Chor Bakr Necropolis, the so called City of the Dead, is located a few kilometres west of the city. It has been a burial place for many centuries and is an unusual and mysterious place. You will return to the city by way of Chor Minor, a quirky construction with four distinctive 'towers'.

Day 10: Drive 50km to visit pottery workshop for masterclass and lunch. Continue to Samarkand, 230km - 6-7 hours.

---

Pottery has long been one of the most important crafts of Central Asia and the skilled craftsmen of the area are famed for their beautiful pottery. This morning you will visit the village of Gijduran, just 50km from Bukhara, whose potters have been producing beautiful ceramics for many, many generations. Their ceramics are particularly distinctive with geometric patterns in colours of mainly green, brown and blue. Here you will visit a pottery workshop and enjoy a pottery masterclass, or you can take a painting or embroidery class instead.

You will have lunch with the family before driving on to Samarkand. On this drive you will pass through many small townships and villages, all very interesting and a unique window onto a totally different way of life. You will arrive in Samarkand in time for your evening meal.

Overnight: Hotel in Samarkand (Meals: BLD)

Day 11: Sightseeing in Samarkand.

---

Samarkand is located in the magnificent region of the Oxus and Syr Darya rivers and occupied a strategic and advantageous geographical position on the Great Silk Road. It is one of the world's most ancient cities, with a history which stretches back over 2750 years, which makes it as old as Rome, Athens and Babylon. It served as the capital city for Tamerlane. There are magnificent examples of medieval architecture preserved in Samarkand, striking in their shapes and rich colours.

You will have a full day sightseeing to take in some of the wonderful sights of the city. Firstly you will visit the 15th century Guri Amir Mausoleum, a masterpiece of medieval Islamic architecture, where the great Mongol conqueror Timur (also known as Tamerlane) is buried, along with his two sons and two grandsons. The Guri Amir is a fine example of medieval craftsmanship and is important architecturally as being the prototype of much Mughal architecture found in India, such as the Taj Mahal.

You will continue to Registan Square, one of the impressive squares in the world. It was the heart of the ancient city of Samarkand - a public square where people gathered to hear royal proclamations and enjoy celebrations and also a place of public executions. It is bounded by three madrassas, masterpieces of Islamic architecture, the Ulugh Beg Madrassa, the Sher-Dor Madrassa and the Tilya-Kori Madrassa.

After lunch you will visit the Bibi Khanym mosque, one of the most important monuments of Samarkand which commemorates Tamerlane's favourite wife, Bibi-Khanym - indeed, according to legend, it was built by Tamerlane's wife to celebrate his safe return from a trip to India.

Later you will visit the Moné Café and Bakery, famous for its cakes and sweets (refreshments at your own expense).

Overnight: Hotel in Samarkand (Meals: BLD)

Day at leisure in Samarkand with optional wine tasting. Or, an optional full day excursion to Shakhrisabz and Langar.

---

Today is free for you to relax and to continue to explore this fascinating city. You may wish to visit three of Samarkand's beautiful churches: the Russian Orthodox Church, St John the Baptist Catholic Church and the Armenian Church. All are within walking distance of your hotel.

You will also have the option today to visit the Khovrenko Wine Factory for a wine tasting. In addition to a tour of the factory and a small attached museum there should be the chance to try several wines, "normal" wines, dessert wines, and even their version of cognac (cost for this trip approximately $20 US.)

Alternatively you can choose to take an excursion today to visit two important historical sites near to Samarkand: Shakhrisabz, the former capital of the great Emperor Tamerlane, now a World Heritage Site, and the traditional mountain village of Langar which houses the tomb of the Sufi scholar Mohammed Sadik Langar together with an ancient mosque. Further details (including prices) can be requested from the Mountain Kingdoms office. This excursion must be booked in advance.

Overnight: Hotel in Samarkand (Meals: B)

Day 13: Sightseeing outside of Samarkand and El Merosi Theatre visit.

---

Today, you will be taken on a sightseeing tour outside the city and will visit a paper mill where silk paper is produced using bark from mulberry trees, Ulugbek Observatory and the Astrological Museum.

Before dinner you will visit the El Merosi Theatre where you can see a show demonstrating the traditional costumes of Uzbekistan through the ages, along with classical Uzbek music.

Overnight: Hotel in Samarkand (Meals: BLD)

Day 14: Sightseeing and bazaar visit. Train to Tashkent - 2.5 hours.

---

In the morning you will visit the Shakhi Zinda Necropolis, one of the few such complexes in ancient Samarkand. The necropolis is a collection of ancient tombs and grand mausoleums built in various architectural styles over many centuries and grouped together in narrow 'streets' or avenues. These monuments were crafted from majolica, mosaic and terracotta - each is unique.

Later you will have lunch and visit Samarkand's famous bazaar, a great experience and also a chance for some last minute shopping, before catching the late afternoon train to Tashkent.

You can spend your last evening together in your hotel, enjoying a drink and reflecting on your wonderful experiences in Uzbekistan.

Overnight: Al Anvar Hotel or Similar, Tashkent (Meals: BLD)

Day 15: Transfer to airport and fly to London.

---

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

Extending your holiday

If you would like additional inspiration on how or where to extend your holiday please call us on 01453 844400.

Fergana Valley Extension

We now offer a pre-tour extension to the fertile Fergana Valley that lies east of Tashkent. The valley was an important stopping point on the Silk Road and is celebrated for its fine artisan crafts. Our 3-night extension includes visits to workshops homes to see wool carpets, silk fabrics and fine ceramics being produced using traditional practices little changed over centuries. There will also be time in Fergana city with its attractive Akhmad Al-Fergani Park, before returning to Tashkent.

Shakhrisabz & Langar day excursion

On your free day in Samarkand (day 12) you can opt to travel instead to the historical sites of Shakhrisabz and Langar that are both within a scenic three hour drive of Samarkand. Shakhrisabz is the former capital of the Mongol Emperor Tamerlane and there are a number of fine monuments to visit including the remains of his magnificent summer palace, the Ak-Saray. You then drive to the village of Langar - a traditional rural mountain village little changed by time - that houses an important pilgrimage tomb and an ancient mosque.

What our clients say

Taking a small group holiday which was well planned and excellently organised must be the best way to experience this part of the Silk Road. From train journeys to small vehicle travel and a local internal plane made the sightseeing varied and gave the opportunity to meet so many friendly local people. Architecture and history came to life with a very excellent local guide. It was fun too and even a 'cooking lesson' in a local home was provided at our request! The whole visit expanded our knowledge of the Uzbeki country, its local communities, its religion and heritage. I highly recommend it!

- Ms W, South Gloucestershire

This tour opened up the magic of Uzbekistan for us. We learnt so much about the country and its history. The most amazing part was that as we progressed around from Tashkent to Khiva, Bukhara and Samarkand, the beauty of the buildings and the skills of the builders surpassed each other until we could no longer envision anything more stunning. Our guide Shakhnoza was so knowledgeable and had us all fascinated despite the history being so complex. We enjoyed the free days which enabled us to revisit places or to shop and which, as part of an intense tour, let us have time to consolidate everything. We also particularly enjoyed the day out to the desert forts which added variety.

-Pauline & Mike, Shropshire

Excellent. Every day was well detailed and we had time to ourselves from time to time to go around on our own. Very varied itinerary. Good hotels and excellent food and restaurants.

-Ms A, Rome

I have wanted to travel the Golden Road to Samarkand since I was very young and the trip did not disappoint. We were a small group (8 people) and got on very well together in the company of our excellent guide. The itinerary was very well planned and I appreciated the 'free days' with time to revisit the best places, explore further and spend time chatting to people.

-V Houghton, Northamptonshire

Definitely could have not picked a better trip to go on or company to book it through! The trip was truly spectacular friendly tour guide who was beyond helpful to all of us! Any advice or queries we had were answered straight away! Fantastic accommodation, absolutely stunning scenery! You couldn't ask for anything better than that really!

The route was very well planned and I particularly appreciated the train journey from Samarkand to Tashkent. This was very evocative of the silk route going across the huge expanse of deserted steppe and seeing the small isolated villages.

Wonderful friendly people who we really enjoyed meeting and talking with. Stunning architecture. All the places we visited had something different to offer and we had enough free time to explore further. We really enjoyed seeing traditional Uzbek skills such as silk and paper making. A wonderful country with incredible people. We will recommend this trip to all our friends

Mountain Kingdoms - distinctly different

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT

For almost four decades, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now have trips to all corners of the globe but are conscious that our holidays can have a detrimental impact on the world around us and want to do all we can to reduce that.

We have focused our main responsible tourism efforts on reducing the carbon emissions produced by our holidays, and counterbalancing this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole.

Carbon offsetting

Since 2007, we have donated a percentage of our client and staff flight costs to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru. Ecoan are a trusted local NGO who use the funds directly to purchase seedling trees with the long-term goal of restoring 2.5 million acres of Andean land.

Ecoan maintains over 100 tree nurseries across Peru where their tree saplings are grown and then transported to planting sites during the rainy season. They use native trees such as the Polylepis, as these can survive at high altitudes. As well as sequestering carbon, they help protect against soil erosion, landslides and the effects of extreme weather on local crops. As such, they are enormously beneficial to the economic well-being of the surrounding communities. This is very much a community-led conservation project, with the local Quechuan people coming together to plant tens of thousands of saplings in the Andean highlands where they live. During the annual Queuña Raymi (tree festival), over 150,000 native trees can be planted in a single day!

For every person booking a long-haul, flight inclusive holiday with us, Ecoan can purchase and plant 20 trees in Peru, and for short-haul flights, 7 trees. Typically, we send over $7,000 per year to Ecoan, which is over 7,000 trees.

Reducing carbon emissions

- ✓ We offer the majority of our clients a free, filtered Water-to-Go bottle to help reduce the need for single-use plastic bottles during their travels.
- ✓ We predominantly use locally-owned hotels and guesthouses rather than multinational chains. In some of our destinations, such as Bhutan, we use homestays. Not only does this type of small-sized, locally-owned accommodation have a much-reduced carbon footprint, but it also helps support communities.
- ✓ We evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel-efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, choose direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We have stopped offering unnecessary optional flights, such as Everest sightseeing. We try to minimise internal flights where possible.
- ✓ We recycle as much of our office waste as possible and have introduced a client portal to reduce paperwork and to make it easier for clients to manage their trips online.

Wider commitment to responsible and sustainable tourism

- ✓ We are signatories to the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside other like-minded travel companies to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.
- ✓ We will continue to support several charities with whom we have a long-standing relationship, such as Shiva Charity in Nepal.

Over the years, we have given sizeable payments to emergency relief when a disaster has occurred in the countries we operate in. We always try to ensure that these funds go directly to those who need them most to help rebuild their lives.
