Trip summary

When you stand on top of Kilimanjaro, you stand on the highest point on the African Continent. It is an extraordinary feeling to be walking on snow and ice, surrounded by huge glaciers, knowing that nearly 20,000 feet below are the hot, dusty plains of Tanzania. Indeed, the first explorers to report back to Europe after seeing Kilimanjaro in the 1840's were disbelieved when they said the mountain was covered with snow, and it was thought that the summit was covered with marble or clouds. Despite recent reports that the snow and ice has all but disappeared, there are still huge glaciers on top and regular snowfalls.

Kilimanjaro is a mountain with relatively easy access - it even has its own international airport. The temptation for many people therefore is to try to fit the ascent into a one week holiday leading to problems with acclimatisation. We have carefully researched the best way to increase your chances of succeeding on Kilimanjaro, which is essentially a summit that is achievable by any reasonably fit trekker. Without a doubt acclimatisation is the key and by climbing Mount Meru first and then by following one of the longer routes up Kilimanjaro, you dramatically increase your chances of success.

Mount Meru is a spectacular mountain in its own right and an excellent acclimatisation trek and preparation for the climb up Kilimanjaro. It is also an interesting contrast to Kilimanjaro, being situated in the Arusha National Park, home to leopards, giraffe, zebra and buffalo to name but a few of the animals that you will hopefully encounter on your trek up Meru's lower slopes. After a gradual start, Meru is an exciting scramble to the top, with a dramatic ridge walk and stupendous views of Kilimanjaro and the Tanzanian plains way below.

Kilimanjaro by contrast, is a vast mountain with several summits, arising out of the plains of northern Tanzania. It is a slow, steady walk to the top and your guide will rightly advise you to go 'pole, pole' (slowly, slowly), and if you do so, with our carefully designed itinerary to maximise acclimatisation, you will have the best possible chance of reaching the summit. The Lemosho route climbs through beautiful, peaceful forest to reach the Shira plateau, before walking around and gradually up the lower slopes of Kilimanjaro to the high camp at Barafu. From here your final ascent will start in the early hours of the morning and it is a long, steady climb to the crater rim at Stella Point at 5,752m/18,980ft. Once you have reached Stella Point, the gradient becomes easier for the walk up to the summit, Uhuru Peak. Standing at 5,895m/19,340ft, watching the sun rise over the African plains, and the icy glaciers and peaks of Kilimanjaro gradually coming into view is a tremendous thrill, and one that will stay with you for a long time. As an added bonus, you will also get to experience an ascent by the atmospheric light of the full moon.

You may have heard that there are national park fees to pay for climbing Kilimanjaro and Meru. Please note that these are included in your trek price, and there are no extras to pay on entering any parks. You will also receive a certificate to prove your summit success.

Special notes

Experience and skills required to undertake Kilimanjaro and Meru

Both Meru and Kilimanjaro are high altitude non-technical trekking peaks.

What climbing them entails:

Meru:

- Walking is mainly on good paths
- On summit day, ridge walking with exposure and some scrambling with exposure

Kilimanjaro:

- Walking is mainly on good paths on rocky terrain.
- On summit day you should expect a steep walk on a good path up scree/rocky slopes that can be snow-covered.

Experience/skills required:

- Strenuous trekking, or hill-walking experience.
- Good head for heights.
- Good degree of physical fitness and stamina.

Equipment and portering

- No technical equipment is required, just good winter walking gear. We will send you a comprehensive kit list when you book.
- Your guide will carry oxygen, pulse oximeters and a first aid kit.
- We use first-rate camping equipment including North Face tents and comfortable sleeping mats (sleeping bags are not provided).
- For meals there will be a separate dining tent, table, chairs, cutlery and crockery.
- All equipment and baggage is portered. Each trekker will have a porter who can carry up to 15KG of personal baggage. You will therefore only need to carry a small daypack with your essential items.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Fly London to Kilimanjaro

---

Depart UK for your flight to Kilimanjaro International Airport.

Overnight: In flight

Day 2: Arrive in Kilimanjaro. Group transfer to lodge.

---

You will be met on arrival at Kilimanjaro International Airport and transferred to your hotel, about an hour's drive from the airport. The hotel is set in stunningly beautiful gardens, and there are extensive grounds. Weather permitting you should get good views of Mount Meru from the lodge.

Overnight: Moivaro Coffee Lodge (Meals: D)

Day 3: Drive to Arusha National Park. Start trek up Mount Meru, 2,514m/8,248ft - 5 hours.

---

You will be picked up in the morning by your guide for the one hour drive to the entrance of the Arusha National Park. There is an excellent view of your objective, the dramatic and rocky Mount Meru from this spot. The half hour drive from here to the Momella Gate should give you glimpses of some of the diverse range of animals that you will be seeing over the next few days, including zebra, buffalo, giraffe and warthogs. At the Momella gate, 1,514m/4,975ft, you will meet your ranger and start the trek. The path is a well-graded track, winding gently uphill through pristine forest, with clearings, waterfalls and hopefully with plentiful sightings of animals. You will stop for lunch, possibly at Fig Tree Arch before continuing uphill to the Kitoto viewpoint with amazing views of the Momella Lakes to the east and the Ngurdoto crater. This area is home to giraffe and leopards. After a short descent you reach the Miriakamba hut.

Overnight: Mountain Hut (Meals: BLD)

Day 4: Ascend to Saddle Hut, 3,570m/11,713ft - 5 hours.

---

The start of your walk today is uphill through beautiful forest. The path is very well-maintained and, after a couple of hours (and hopefully spectacular views of Kilimanjaro), you reach Elephant Point. This is an excellent place to stop and admire the views of the crater plain that you crossed yesterday and which is now way below. The path continues to zigzag up the ridge and then the flank of the mountain, with gradual changes in vegetation as you reach the alpine zone. You will get your first sightings of heather, senecio and, if you are lucky, chameleons, in this region. After a break at the Saddle Hut, you can walk to the top of Little Meru 3,820m/12,533ft, improving your acclimatisation. It will be an early night before your very early morning start up Mount Meru tomorrow.

Day 5: Summit Mount Meru, 4,556m/14,947ft - 8 hours. Descend to Miriakamba Hut, 2,514m/8,248ft.

---

Your guide will wake you up in the very early hours for your start up Mount Meru. (This is excellent practice for Kilimanjaro). The aim will be to reach a good viewpoint on Mount Meru for the sunrise. The trek starts gradually, crossing the saddle before reaching a ridge at Rhino Point. The path then climbs to follow the edge of the crater rim. After 3 or 4 hours you reach the first of several false summits, and the final scramble to the top comes not a minute too soon. You return by the same route to the mountain hut, where you will have lunch before descending to 2,514m/8,248ft for the night.

Overnight: Mountain Hut (Meals: BLD)

Day 6: Descend to Park Gate, 1,514m/4,960ft - 3 hours.

---

After the efforts of the previous three days, you have a pleasant walk back down to the park gate today. This follows a different route from the ascent and is a stunningly beautiful walk through parkland, hopefully containing much wildlife. Amongst the many animals you may well see close by are baboons, giraffe, warthogs, and buffalo. A short detour takes you to the Tululusia Falls for a break before you walk across the plain at the bottom of the mountain. Your vehicle will meet you at the park gate before a one hour drive back to the hotel.

Overnight: Moivaro Coffee Lodge (Meals: BLD)

Day 7: Drive to Kilimanjaro - 3-4 hours. Trek to Shira 1 Camp, 3,505m/11,499ft - 1-2 hours.

---

After breakfast your Kilimanjaro guide will meet you at your hotel for a pre-trek briefing after which you will drive to Londorossi Gate at the National Park's western entrance. The gate is set right on the edge of beautiful forest and it is here that you will meet your trek crew and porters. After signing the book it is a short drive up a muddy track, past fields of potatoes and carrots, to the start of the trek. The path sets off climbing gradually through thick forest, full of birds and black and white Colobus monkey and the more common blue monkeys. After only a couple of hours you will reach your camp for the night.

Overnight: Camp (Meals: BLD)

Day 8: Trek to Shira 2 Camp, 3,840m/12,598ft - 4 hours. Acclimatisation trek towards Lava Tower Camp.

---

There are a variety of routes that you can take today to reach the next campsite. All are designed to maximise your acclimatisation. The route chosen will be at the discretion of your guide. After around 3 to 4 hours of trekking you will reach the campsite at Shira 2 - one of the best places for views of Mount Meru if the weather is clear.

After lunch at camp and a couple of hours of rest, you will complete an acclimatisation hike towards Lava Tower Camp giving an additional 200m of ascent today.

Day 9: Trek to Great Barranco Valley, 3,985m/13,074ft - 6-8 hours.

---

The route to the Great Barranco Valley today is via the Lava Tower. It is a steady walk uphill, around huge lava blocks and through sparse vegetation to reach the Lava Tower 4,640m/15,223ft, a huge block on the end of a cliff. There is a cold and windswept campsite here, but you will just have a lunch stop before descending to the Great Barranco Valley. The valley is a lovely spot, with giant lobelia and senecio and the magnificent views of the Heim Glacier, Kili's southern face and the Western breach. You will also be able to view your route up the Great Barranco wall tomorrow.

Day 10: Trek to Karanga Camp, 4,040m/13,254ft - 4-5 hours. Acclimatisation walk.

The start of today's trek is one of the most exciting, as you ascend the Barranco wall. This is an easy scramble, and at the top you are rewarded with views of your route ahead and the Southern Ice-fields. You descend from the wall and then climb once more, on the south-eastern flank of Kibo to reach Karanga Camp in time for lunch. This afternoon you will take a short hike out and back from the camp in order to aid acclimatisation.

Overnight: Camp (Meals: BLD)

Day 11: Trek to Barafu Camp, 4,640m/15,223ft - 4-5 hours. Acclimatisation hike.

---

From Karanga, the path leads upwards across volcanic scree, which you follow to reach the Barafu campsite by mid-afternoon. After some time to rest and recuperate there is a further acclimatisation hike towards the intermediate Kosovo Summit Camp, 4,800m/15,748ft, before returning to Barafu.

Day 12: Ascend Kilimanjaro, via Stella Point, 5,895m/19,340ft - 7-8 hour trek. Descend to Millennium Camp, 3,820m/12,533ft - 2-4 hours.

You will set off at about midnight in order to hopefully reach the crater rim for sunrise. All departures are timed to make the final ascent of Kilimanjaro by the light of the full moon which will be more atmospheric and help light your way.

The path climbs gradually before reaching a steeper section and then well-graded and seemingly unending zigzags up the main face. Your guide will advise you to walk very slowly and, if you do so, you greatly increase your chances of reaching your goal. Reaching the crater rim at Stella Point is a huge achievement and it is a great relief to know that the hardest part of the climb is now over. The final gradual trek from Stella Point to the Uhuru Summit takes about 45 minutes. The effort for this final push is well rewarded, with superb 360° views of the Southern Ice-field, the Ice Cathedral, the Northern Ice-field and down into the crater and ash pit. It is well worth staying on the summit for as long as you can, before starting the descent. The walk back down the scree to the campsite is relatively quick, and you can marvel at what you have climbed a few hours previously. After a rest and lunch at Barafu, you descend for a further two hours to reach Millennium Camp at 3,820m/12,533ft.

Day 13: Trek to Mweka Park Gate, 1,640m/5,381ft - 4-5 hours. Drive to hotel.

---

Your final day on trek is down a well-maintained path, with the vegetation becoming gradually more extensive, with big trees appearing for the first time since you approached the Shira Plateau on Day 4. The forest is full of tree ferns, impatiens and monkeys. After a 3-4 hour walk you reach the Mweka Park Gate at 1,640m/5,381ft and say a sad farewell to your trek crew and porters. A vehicle will meet you to drive you to your hotel and a welcome shower.

Overnight: Aishi Machame Hotel or Similar (Meals: BLD)

Day 14: At leisure. Group transfer to Kilimanjaro Airport and fly to London.

---

The morning is free for you to relax in your hotel before transferring to the airport for your afternoon flight back to London.

Overnight: In flight (Meals: B L)

Day 15: Arrive UK.

---

Today you will arrive back in London.

Our grading system

Summits of Meru & Kilimanjaro is graded as a Strenuous trekking peak holiday, as described below.

Strenuous

Our strenuous trekking holidays can involve anything from 10 to 30 days on trek and are often in remote areas, far from 'civilisation'. Rest days are interspersed but there may be up to 7 consecutive days of hard walking. Most treks reach altitudes of at least 4,900m/16,000ft and there will be a great deal of ascent and descent. The majority of our strenuous treks utilise camping, tea house or mountain lodge accommodation.

These holidays are suitable for fit individuals who have regular experience of mountain walking.

Trip altitude

Important - please be aware that this trip involves travel at altitude. Whilst all our itineraries are carefully designed to optimise acclimatisation to high altitudes, participants on this trip are likely to experience some symptoms of being at altitude. The Dossier pack we provide when you book your holiday includes comprehensive advice on safe travel at altitude. If you require further information or advice on travel at altitude prior to booking please contact the office to speak to an experienced member of our team. Alternatively we recommend www.medex.org.uk as a good source of information.

The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.

Comprehensive information

When we receive your booking we send you a full trip dossier which contains details of visas and vaccinations required, a suggested gear and clothing list and lots of useful information. In fact, everything you need to know to give you peace of mind and allow you to prepare for your trip of a lifetime.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM STATEMENT CLIMATE EMERGENCY PLAN

For over 33 years, Mountain Kingdoms has been offering people the chance to visit amazing places on this extraordinary planet. We now offer trips to all corners of the world, but we are conscious that inevitably our holidays have a detrimental impact on the world around us, and we want to do all we can to reduce our carbon emissions. We are a signatory to Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency, along with a growing number of like-minded, reputable tour operators. For more information, please visit www.tourismdeclares.com

From 2020 onwards, we will be focusing on how we can reduce the carbon emissions that our holidays produce, and how to counterbalance this carbon by supporting carbon offset measures. Here are some of our current and future plans to minimise the impact of our business as a whole:

Carbon Offsetting

Already doing:

- ✓ We have been offsetting carbon since 2007, but will be increasing our donations to the Ecoan tree planting project in Peru this year. This is with a trusted partner where the funds go directly to a project where the community plants trees on its own land.

Will do:

- ✓ We are working on making our carbon offsetting more accurate and targeted.
- ✓ In future, we will add to that a further estimate for carbon produced by hotels, local road travel, trains and internal flights to arrive at a carbon offset sum for each trip we operate.
- ✓ Carbon offsetting will be included in our holiday prices. For our Flight Inclusive holidays it will include the international flight and any emissions produced by inland travel and accommodation. Our Land Only prices will include the cost of offsetting emissions caused by inland travel and accommodation.

Reducing Carbon Emissions

Already doing:

- ✓ We already offer the majority of our customers a free filtered water bottle which means they can instantly cut down on their single-use plastic consumption. This will be an ongoing project.
- ✓ We already predominantly use locally owned hotels, but will continue to ensure that, where possible, we use these rather than multinational chains.
- ✓ We have joined the Tourism Declares a Climate Emergency initiative to stand alongside like-minded travel companies, to work together to initiate best practices to make tourism as sustainable as possible.

Will do:

- ✓ We will re-evaluate our flights to make sure we are using the most fuel efficient airlines with the youngest fleets and, where possible, direct flights for each trip.
- ✓ We will stop offering unnecessary optional flights – for example our Everest sightseeing trip.
- ✓ We will eliminate unnecessary staff flights wherever possible.
- ✓ We will look at minimising internal flights.
- ✓ We will be asking all our worldwide agents and suppliers to look at their own carbon footprint and encourage them to reduce it.
- ✓ We will promote our more low impact trips to give customers an informed choice.

As part of our wider commitment to Responsible Tourism, we will continue to support a number of charities with whom we have had a long standing relationship over many years. These include: Shiva Charity in Nepal (Ginette Harrison School), Simien Mountains Mobile Medical Service and Porter Welfare, as well as setting aside a sum for emergency disaster relief should the need arise.
