Your guide

You will have a fully qualified English-speaking 'Wilderness Guide' who will teach you how to handle the dogs, harness them, and how to drive your sled. Your guide will accompany you and take you on your adventure, and brief you each day. During the husky sledding you will be responsible for feeding and caring for your hard working dogs and will no doubt build up quite a bond with them by the end of the trip.

Your trip highlights

- Explore the spectacular untouched scenery of Lapland
- Drive your own dog-sled team of 4-6 dogs, look after the huskies and let them steal your heart
- Six possible chances to experience the Northern Lights (weather and activity permitting)
- Enjoy excellent accommodation in the cosy cabins at Harriniva and steaming saunas at each wilderness hut

At a glance itinerary

Day 1	Fly London to Kittilä. Meet on arrival at Kittilä Airport, then transfer to Harriniva Resort, near Muonio.
Day 2	Collect your equipment, meet your guide for an introduction and briefing, start your safari.
Days 3-5	Husky Sledding through forests and across frozen lakes between wilderness huts
Day 6	Return to Muonio, farewell dinner.
Day 7	Transfer to Kittilä Airport. Fly to UK.

Trip summary

This adventure takes you through the breath taking scenery of North West Finland, across vast frozen lakes and through beautiful forests, along the edge of the Pallas Yllas National Park, the remoteness and tranquillity is inspiring.

Whilst you are on the Husky safari there will be an English-speaking guide who will give you a safety briefing, show you how to harness your dogs and control your sled. The guide cooks all your meals in the wilderness at lunchtimes and at the huts in the evening. There is plenty of variety and the food is of an excellent standard. You will be expected to help look after and feed the dogs, and help around the hut by fetching water, bringing firewood from the store, lighting the sauna and washing up.

The huts are generally log cabins with timber outbuildings, a separate sauna, and wilderness toilets, they are very cosy and atmospheric and helping out certainly does not feel like a chore. There is no electricity at the huts, lighting is by candlelight and heating by wood burning stoves or log fire. The sauna is a fantastic way to unwind at the end of the day and you might like to try rolling in the snow as well, after or during the sauna. The arrangements for the sauna are flexible and can be adjusted according to the group dynamics.

The daily distances vary between 25 and 40 kilometres per day depending on participants' physical condition, and the weather. This is a sporty safari but is accessible for everyone with a good fitness level.

There is much debate over how to optimise your chances of seeing a display of the Northern Lights. By heading to the far north there is very little light pollution. However the aurora is notoriously unpredictable, and is most often seen between 9pm and 4am, so be prepared for some late nights and above all, do be patient. Your guide may be sent notification when the aurora activity is predicted to be high.

Special notes

Grading

Please note that whilst this trip is graded as a tour it is a physically demanding holiday. You look after your dogs and get involved with the daily routine so there are lots of physical, yet rewarding, activities.

Group composition

There will be clients from other tour operators joining this trip, this has been done to offer the best possible value, whilst still offering a high level of service for Mountain Kingdoms clients.

Sledding in December and January

During December and January there will be shorter periods of light during the day. Normally you will be sledding between 10 am and 3pm when there will be sufficient light for you to be able to enjoy the beautiful surrounding scenery as you sled between huts.

As the wilderness huts have no electricity it is essential in the mornings and evenings to have a head torch. This will enable you to undertake tasks and prepare or settle the dogs for the day.

Your trip itinerary

Day 1: Arrive in Kittilä.

On arrival you will be met and transferred by taxi/bus to Harriniva Resort, Munio. There will be a fixed transfer for the group at a set time.

Mid to late morning you will set off on your husky safari. Lunch will be prepared en-route by your guide. On arrival at the wilderness hut in the late afternoon you will be shown how to de-harness, and tend to your dog team, light the fire and sauna and fetch water from the lake. You will then have time for a relaxing sauna before dinner. Dinner is prepared by your guide although you will be expected to muck in with the washing up or any other necessary chores.

Overnight: Wilderness Hut (Meals: BLD)

Day 3: Husky sledding.

After another delicious breakfast you will attend to the dogs, pack up the sleds, tidy the hut and set off for another days sledding.

You will stop for about an hour for lunch prepared in the wilderness by your guide. Then you set off once again for a couple more hours until you reach the next wilderness hut later in the afternoon. Again you will be expected to tend to your dogs and help with chores, although by now you will know your dogs individually and may spend as much time petting them as feeding them.

This makes water from virtually any source safe to drink and significantly reduces the need for travellers to buy bottles of water wherever they are in the world.

For our clients who are not given a free Mountain Kingdoms kit bag (these are required for certain treks), there is the choice of receiving either a free Water-to-Go bottle or a free Mountain Kingdoms fleece. The nature of adventure travel

Every effort will be made to keep to this itinerary but we cannot guarantee that things may not change, either before you travel or while you are away. By its very nature, adventure travel involves an element of the unexpected, particularly in more remote areas. A variety of factors such as adverse weather conditions, changes to local schedules and difficulties with transportation can all contribute to the need to make changes to the itinerary, often at the very last minute. Our Operations Manager and your Trip Leader will make every effort to maintain the integrity of the original itinerary and minimise the impact of any changes, but an easy-going and flexible nature is a real asset! Please note that all timings and distances given are approximate.

Truly independent

In an age where many so-called 'independent' travel companies have in fact been bought out by multi-national giants, we remain fiercely independent with all the benefits this offers our clients.

Value for money prices with an emphasis on quality

We are not in the business of cutting our itineraries and services to the bone to offer eye-catching cheap prices. We use some of the best airlines, and typically 3 or 4 star hotels in cities. We include the majority of meals and private transport for road travel. We use excellent equipment and appoint well-trained staff and leaders. Last year, over 98% of our clients rated their Mountain Kingdoms holiday as 'excellent' or 'good'. We are members of AITO and bound by their quality charter.

Complete financial security

You can book with us confident that your holiday has full financial protection. Flight inclusive holidays are financially protected by the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL licence number 2973 and 'Land Only' holidays are covered by a bond secured with ABTOT.

No Surcharge Guarantee

Your peace of mind is important to us so we have a No Surcharge Guarantee on all Land Only and Flight Inclusive bookings. This means that there will be no change to the price of your holiday once we have confirmed your booking, regardless of fluctuations in exchange rates or fuel prices.

Award winning Responsible Tourism

We feel strongly that all our holidays should benefit local communities, protect the environment and respect local traditions, religion and heritage. You can read more about the charities we support and our Responsible Tourism commitments and initiatives on the following page or at www.mountainkingdoms.com.

Genuine small group travel

Almost all of our holidays have a maximum group size of just 12, plus leader. This provides more contact with your leader, readier access to off-the-beaten-path areas, greater interaction with local communities and a reduced environmental impact.

Loyalty Discount

If you have previously travelled with us we recognise your loyalty with a discount on future trips.

Booking your holiday - it couldn't be easier

Once you've chosen your Mountain Kingdoms holiday you can book online, call the office or complete and post a booking form which can be found in our brochure or downloaded from our website. If you would like to hold a place on one of our trips, whilst you make up your mind, please give us a call to make a provisional booking. This is a no-obligation, no-cost booking and we will hold your place until space comes under pressure or we need your decision.
