

Agra & the Taj Mahal and Agra & Jaipur

Suitable for those beginning or ending a trip in Delhi or with a stopover in Delhi.

India - Extension Options

Why not add an exciting day trip to Agra to see the sights of the one time capital of the great Mughal Empire. Or, if you have more time available, perhaps take a longer trip with an overnight stay in Agra or visiting both Agra and another gem of the 'Golden Triangle', Jaipur.

Whichever option you take, once in Agra you will be looked after by one of our experienced, English-speaking guides who will show you around the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and the ancient city and mosque of Fatehpur Sikri. For those travelling on to Jaipur, you will take guided visits to the Amber Fort, Palace of the Winds and City Palace, along with time to explore the colourful bazaars of the 'Pink City'.

Please note if travelling from Kathmandu, additional flight cost/s may apply for a stopover. You will also need an Indian visa if doing these extensions as a stopover from Kathmandu.

Please be aware that the Taj Mahal is closed on Fridays.

If you are interested in other sightseeing options in Delhi, Agra or northern India please contact the office.
