

Essaouira Beach Extension

Morocco - Extension

If you would like some seaside relaxation after your trek why not head to the atmospheric town of Essaouira located on Morocco's wild Atlantic coastline, less than 3 hours' drive from Marrakesh. Essaouira has a laid back atmosphere, long sandy beaches and a spectacular ancient fortified Medina. The medina with its imposing defenses is a world heritage site, with winding streets, whitewashed houses and rooftop cafés as well as colourful markets where you can barter for leather slippers, spices, Berber carpets and argan products. Nearby is the picturesque fishing port where you can see the day's catch being landed while nets are repaired and traditional wooden boats are built.

We offer three options for accommodation in Essaouira, two by the beach and one in the medina but if you have another preference just ask us for prices.
